Description :

PDF-60209 | Arthur J. Stone (1847-1938), one of the last independent silversmiths to make silver by hand, was a major promoter of the Arts and Crafts tenets of beautiful but functional design. His influential work as a designer and craftsman set the standard for a generation of apprentices who were trained in hand-working techniques at his highly respected workshop in Gardner, Massachusetts. This handsome pub... Arthur J. Stone, 1847-1938: Designer and silversmith
